You will receive an actual, physical newspaper from the day you were born. Or the birthdate of your spouse or child or anyone you'd like to honor with this special gift. The New York Times is likely available, or the Baltimore Sun, or another major city's paper. Availabilities vary, so in the unlikely event the date you choose is not available, you can choose any TWO dates and receive a jigsaw puzzle of the New York Times front page on those dates.
